

PAUL QUINN

Clothes Closet

Donation Drive

Accepting gently used business clothing items. The Business Closet program offers philanthropic partners the opportunity to experience the Quinnite Nation and support the college's mission through acts of service. Corporations wishing to participate are encouraged to make philanthropic gifts to the college of clothing items or scholarship opportunities for students.

PAUL QUINN COLLEGE

Donate Clothes

About our Donation Program: Paul Quinn College gladly accepts gently used business attire. This helps students get acclimated to the professional world.

Clothes Donation Guideline: To help us prevent infection and maintain student safety and well-being:

We only accept gently used and undamaged business attire clothing items.

Clothes should be clean and free of any stains or tears.

If the items don't fall within our guidelines or are unsafe/inappropriate for our students, we reserve the right to politely decline donations.
