

PAUL QUINN

TEXTBOOK POLICY

Effective Summer 2015, undergraduate students are not required to purchase textbooks or supplemental course materials. All required course content will be provided to students by the instructor as electronic resources, links to Web sites and/or handouts. All students and faculty members have access to the Zale Library Electronic Databases, from on and off campus. Electronic resources may also be posted in the CAMS Student Portal and/or MOODLE for student access. In rare cases where open resources are not available for a particular course, the College will acquire a course set of resources which will be loaned to students for the duration of the course. If the loaned resources are not returned to the College in a timely manner, a replacement will be charge will be applied to the student's account.

Effective January 2023, students enrolled in the MBA program are required to acquire their graduate level textbooks through rental or purchase. New or used textbook may be used. Graduate students are responsible for the cost and acquisition process of all require textbooks and educational resources.